Buyer may, at its sole discretion, consider any claim regardless of when asserted. If Seller's proposal includes the cost of property made obsolete or excess by the change, Buyer may direct the disposition of the property. Seller shall use its best efforts to mitigate damages by attempting to sell obsolete or excess supplies to other customers.

Buyer's engineering and technical personnel may from time to time render assistance or give technical advice to, or discuss or affect an exchange of information with the Seller's personnel concerning the work hereunder. Seller shall not be entitled to any adjustment of the contract price, delivery schedule or other contract provisions because of actions taken by the Seller pursuant to said instruction, order or advice without a written Purchase Order Revision, Change Order, or Supplemental Agreement to this Contract issued by Buyer's Authorized Procurement Representative.

The Seller shall not make any changes in the work or end items (including assemblies, subassemblies, parts and components thereof) that do not conform to the requirements of this contract without the prior written consent of Buyer. Seller shall not, without the prior written authorization of Buyer, sell or otherwise dispose of (as scrap or otherwise) any parts or other materials containing, conveying, embodying or made in accordance with or by reference to any Proprietary Information and Materials of Buyer. Prior to disposing of such parts or other materials as scrap, Seller shall render them unusable. Buyer shall have the right to audit Seller’s compliance with this article.

Seller may disclose Proprietary Information and Materials of Buyer to its subcontractors as required for the performance of this Contract, provided that each such subcontractor first agrees in writing to the same obligations imposed upon Seller under this article relating to Proprietary Information and Materials. Seller shall be liable to Buyer for any breach of such obligation by such subcontractor.

The provisions of this article are effective in lieu of any restrictive legends or notices applied to Proprietary Information and Materials. The provisions of this article shall survive the performance, completion, termination or cancellation of this Contract for a period of two (2) years.

Seller further understands that Buyer is a defense contractor providing work for the United States Government, and as such, is under certain mandatory security obligations with regard to access to its facilities and technology. Due to the fact that disclosure of certain information to any individual may be deemed an export, Seller agrees that it will not assign any worker to perform services under this Agreement (including the Seller him or herself) unless that person qualifies as a “U.S. person,” defined as:

20. Rights and Remedies Any failures, delays or forbearances of either party in insisting upon or enforcing any provisions of this Contract, or in exercising any rights or remedies under this Contract, shall not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment of any such provisions, rights or remedies; rather, the same shall remain in full force and effect. Except as otherwise limited in this Contract, the rights and remedies set forth herein are cumulative and in addition to any other rights or remedies that the parties may have at law or in equity. If any provision of this Contract is or becomes void or unenforceable by law, the remainder shall be valid and enforceable.

21. Dispute Resolution

21.1 Disputes Under This Agreement. In the event of any dispute, claim, question, or disagreement arising from or relating to this agreement or the breach thereof, the parties hereto shall attempt to settle the dispute, claim, question, or disagreement. To this effect, the parties shall consult and negotiate with each other in good faith and, recognizing their mutual interests, attempt to reach a just and equitable solution satisfactory to both parties. If the parties do not reach such solution (or agree in writing to mediate the dispute) within a period of 30 days, then, upon notice by either party to the other, all disputes, claims, questions, or differences shall be finally settled by arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association in accordance with the provisions of its Commercial Arbitration Rules and Mediation Procedures. The American Arbitration Association will select one arbitrator to resolve the dispute and the arbitration will be held in Phoenix, Arizona.

Disputes, claims, questions, or disagreement that are based on intellectual property rights (including, but not limited to patent validity and infringement, trademark or copyright infringement, and misuse or disclosure of trade secrets) shall be submitted to a court of competent jurisdiction and are not subject to the arbitration procedures mandated by this clause.

The arbitrator will have no authority to award punitive or other damages not measured by the prevailing party's actual damages, except as may be required by statute.

The arbitrator shall award to the prevailing party, if any, as determined by the arbitrator, all of its costs and fees. "Costs and fees" mean all reasonable pre-award expenses of the arbitration, including the arbitrators' fees, administrative fees, travel expenses, out-of-pocket expenses such as copying and telephone, court costs, witness fees, and attorneys' fees.

The procedures set forth in this Article shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of disputes between the parties arising out of or relating to this Agreement; provided, however, that a party may seek a preliminary injunction or other provisional judicial relief if, in its sole judgment, such action is necessary. Despite such action, the parties will continue to participate in good faith in the procedures specified in this Article. All applicable statutes of limitations and defenses based upon the passage of time shall be tolled while the procedures (including optional mediation) specified in this Article are pending. The parties will take necessary action that is required to effectuate such tolling. Each party is required to continue to perform its obligations under this contract pending resolution of any dispute arising out of the contract unless to do so would be impossible under the circumstances. The requirements of this Article shall not be deemed to constitute a waiver of any right of termination under this contract.

21.2 Disputes Under Prime Contract Provision

21.2.1 Notwithstanding paragraph 21.1, any Dispute arising under or related to this Order, which Buyer could include in a claim or other demand under the disputes provisions of the prime contract shall be resolved, at Buyer's option, as follows: (i) Seller shall provide Buyer with a fully supported written claim, properly certified, within

If Seller fails to provide Buyer with a written claim for any Dispute that could fall within this paragraph within twenty (20) days after the claim arises, Seller is deemed to have waived the claim and may not bring the claim under paragraph 21.1 or 21.2.

21.2.2 Buyer's entire liability to Seller with respect to any matter prosecuted under the prime contract disputes clause shall be limited to the recovery obtained against the Government (or prime contractor) for Seller's claims, less markups specifically allowed Buyer. If Seller is affected by the resulting decision and Buyer elects to appeal, Seller shall pay to Buyer Seller's proportion of the appeal costs. If Buyer elects not to appeal the decision, Buyer shall notify Seller of such decision within thirty (30) days. If Seller submits a timely request to Buyer to appeal such decision, Buyer shall file an appeal, at Seller's sole cost, if Buyer may do so in good faith. Buyer has the right to review, prior to submission, any pleading or other papers Seller wants to file in such appeal. Seller agrees to delete any admissions or statements in the pleadings or papers to which Buyer reasonably objects. If Buyer appeals such decision, whether or not at Seller's request, any decision regarding such appeal shall be binding on Buyer and Seller as it relates to this Order. Paragraphs 18 and 21.1 do not apply to disputes and appeals prosecuted under the prime contract.

21.3 Until final resolution of any Dispute hereunder, Seller shall proceed diligently with the performance of this Order unless otherwise directed by Buyer in writing.

This article does not limit Seller's ability to purchase standard commercial supplies or raw materials.

23. Gratuities Seller warrants that neither it nor any of its employees, agents or representatives have offered or given, or will offer or give, any gratuities to Buyer's employees, agents or representatives for the purpose of securing this Contract or securing favorable treatment under this Contract.
